

Lumina FAQs

What is Lumina?

Lumina is Bolchazy-Carducci Publishers' interactive content. Bolchazy-Carducci Publishers has developed Lumina content for Latin for the New Millennium Level 1 and Level 2, Caesar and Vergil Selections, and Artes Latinae.

Lumina: Latin for the New Millennium Level 1 and Latin for the New Millennium Level 2 is designed to be guided online practice to accompany the Latin for the New Millennium textbooks.

Lumina: Caesar and Vergil Selections offers online interactive exercises designed to prepare students for the rigors of the AP® Latin exam. Hundreds of automatically-graded multiple choice questions promote close reading of all syllabus selections and provide students with immediate feedback. Ample free response questions ensure that students have the tools to thoroughly analyze and respond to syllabus passages. Practice exams prepare students for exam format, while vocabulary and figures of speech flashcards allow for additional review.

Lumina: Artes Latinae Level 1 and Artes Latinae Level 2 are online courses. These self-teaching Latin courses are revised editions of the Artes Latinae DVD program and use the Artes Latinae Program Method of teaching.

How do students access Lumina?

Lumina is available for individual learners and for classrooms. For individuals and classrooms not using a school Learning Management System (LMS), Lumina is available via Bolchazy-Carducci's Moodle. For classrooms with a school LMS, LTI links are provided for the Lumina content.

How long do students have access to Lumina content?

Lumina is sold as a one year subscription. For individual users the subscription is 365 days from the day of purchase confirmation. For schools the one year subscription is July 15th of the purchase year until July 15th of the next year.

How do schools or individuals purchase Lumina?

Lumina can be purchased from the Bolchazy-Carducci Publishers website: www.bolchazy.com.

Lumina: Latin for the New Millennium has three buying options: Individual User, Classroom without an LMS, or Classroom with an LMS.

Lumina: Caesar and Vergil Selections can be purchased for classrooms with an LMS, as well as for individuals and classrooms without an LMS. All three options are available via the same checkout process for $10.00 per user.

Lumina: Artes Latinae is accessible only as a course on the Bolchazy-Carducci Moodle page. Students are individually enrolled in Artes Latinae.

Select your buying option and check out (place your order). You will receive a confirmation email with instructions on how to access the Lumina content based on your purchase.
