

Societas Legendi

De lege societatis:

- I. Each member is responsible for actively reading the assigned section prior to coming to class.
- II. Each member will take on an additional role per week. The assigned role will change on a weekly basis.

De officiis doctorum:

Doctor personae – traces the character's actions, motivations, and personalities. Keeps track of any new characters. At the end of the meeting, turns in reflections.

Doctor consilii – comes to the meeting prepared with 3 excellent, open ended discussion questions and is responsible for guiding the discussion during the meeting. At the end of the meeting, turns in discussion questions.

Doctor picturae – comes to the meeting with either 3-- 4 relevant images/works of art or 1 self-made image. At the end of the meeting, turns in images/picture.

Doctor investigationis – comes to the meeting having researched 4 items/ideas/terms/processes that came up in the reading. At the end of the meeting, turns in research.

De colloquii ratione:

Use the following protocol to discuss your assigned reading.

- I. Brief period of plot discussion to be sure everyone understands what happened in the assigned reading. Doctor investigationis may wish to share some research here.
- II. Doctor consilii begins the discussion with one question. Any/all group members contribute to the discussion by responding and adding any relevant input from their own focus.
- III. Doctor consilii keeps the discussion going by asking additional questions and allowing people adequate time to contribute and share their own research.
- IV. Doctor personae brings the meeting to a close by summarizing new developments in our characters.

Developed by Lynne West.